

Songs of springtime romance

Friday, May 15, 7:00 to 9:00

CROSSROADS COFFEEHOUSE...
2020 Main Street
Cross Plains, Wisconsin
608.798.2080

Serving beer & wine and light fare

Conveniently located 10 minutes and 8 miles west of the Beltline on U.S Hwy 14.

“Local...Independent...Eclectic...
Cozy...Artsy...Delicious”

Come What

May

DARCIE JOHNSTON (VOCALS)...

performed in jazz clubs, concert halls, and seedy bars in the Washington, DC, area for more than 20 years before moving to Madison. In her capitol days, she was featured on the radio program “Music Americana” and played the role of jazz singer Madeline HiRose in the film Mrs. Stevens Hears the Mermaids Singing. Bucky Pizzarelli, Chuck Redd, and Keter Betts are among the many gifted musicians she’s had the pleasure of playing with—a list that now includes Madison’s Doug Brown, Cliff Frederiksen, and Michael BB.

DOUG BROWN (GUITAR)...

a native of Madison, cut his teeth banging on his mother's piano, denting his dad's trumpet, and emulating his musical older siblings and neighbors. He has continued for five decades denting and banging instruments at American Players Theater, the Madison Symphony, and Wisconsin Chamber Orchestra and playing with notable musicians Harmonious Wail, Ken Lonnquist, Michelle DuVall, and others who prefer not to be named.

"That lovely month when everyone goes blissfully astray"